

PCP: How often is information sent before specialist's visit?

SCP: How often is information received before the visit?

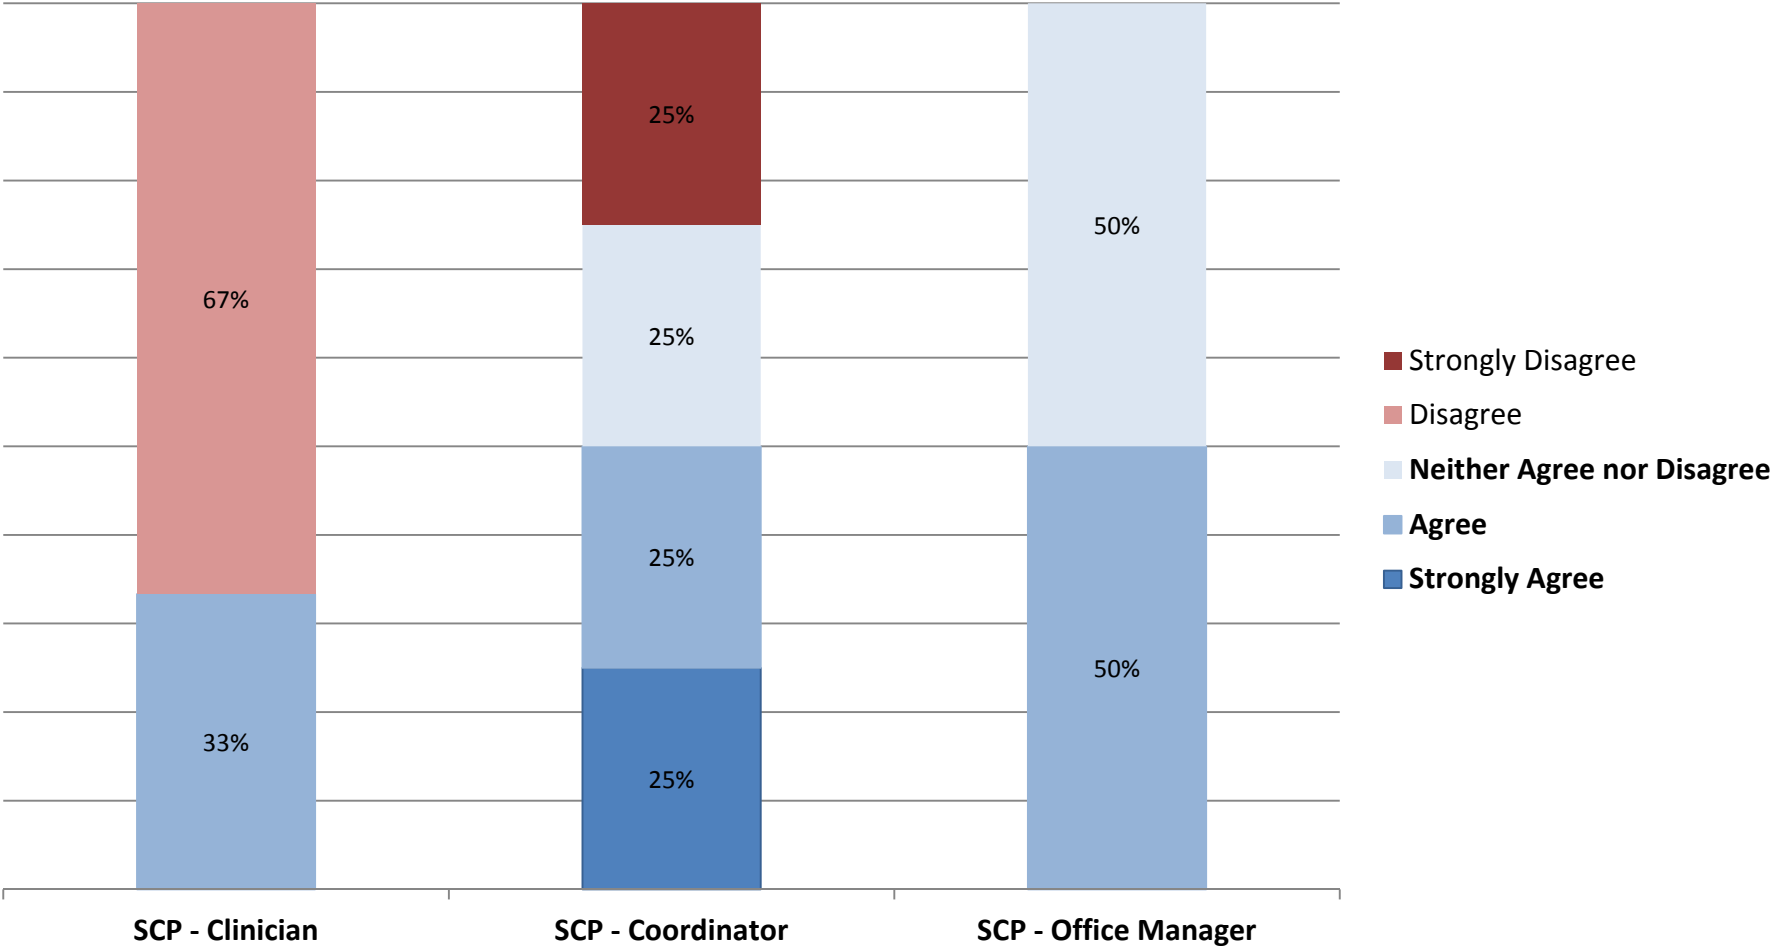

PCP: I know the information specialists want to receive.

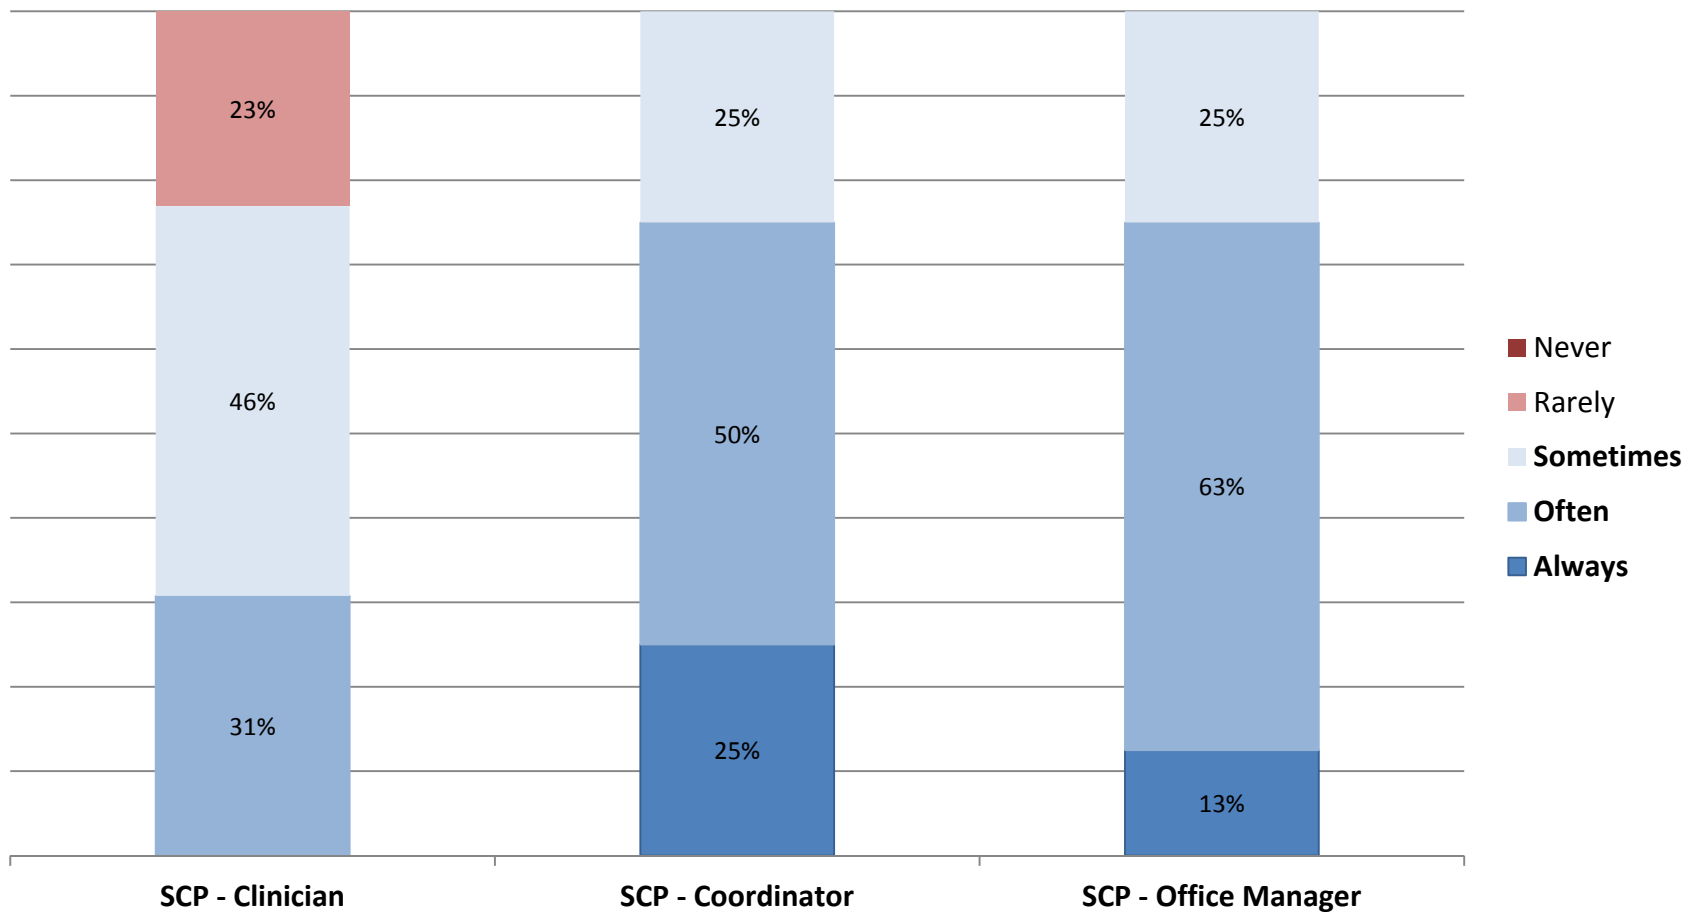

SCP: PCP's know the information I want to receive.

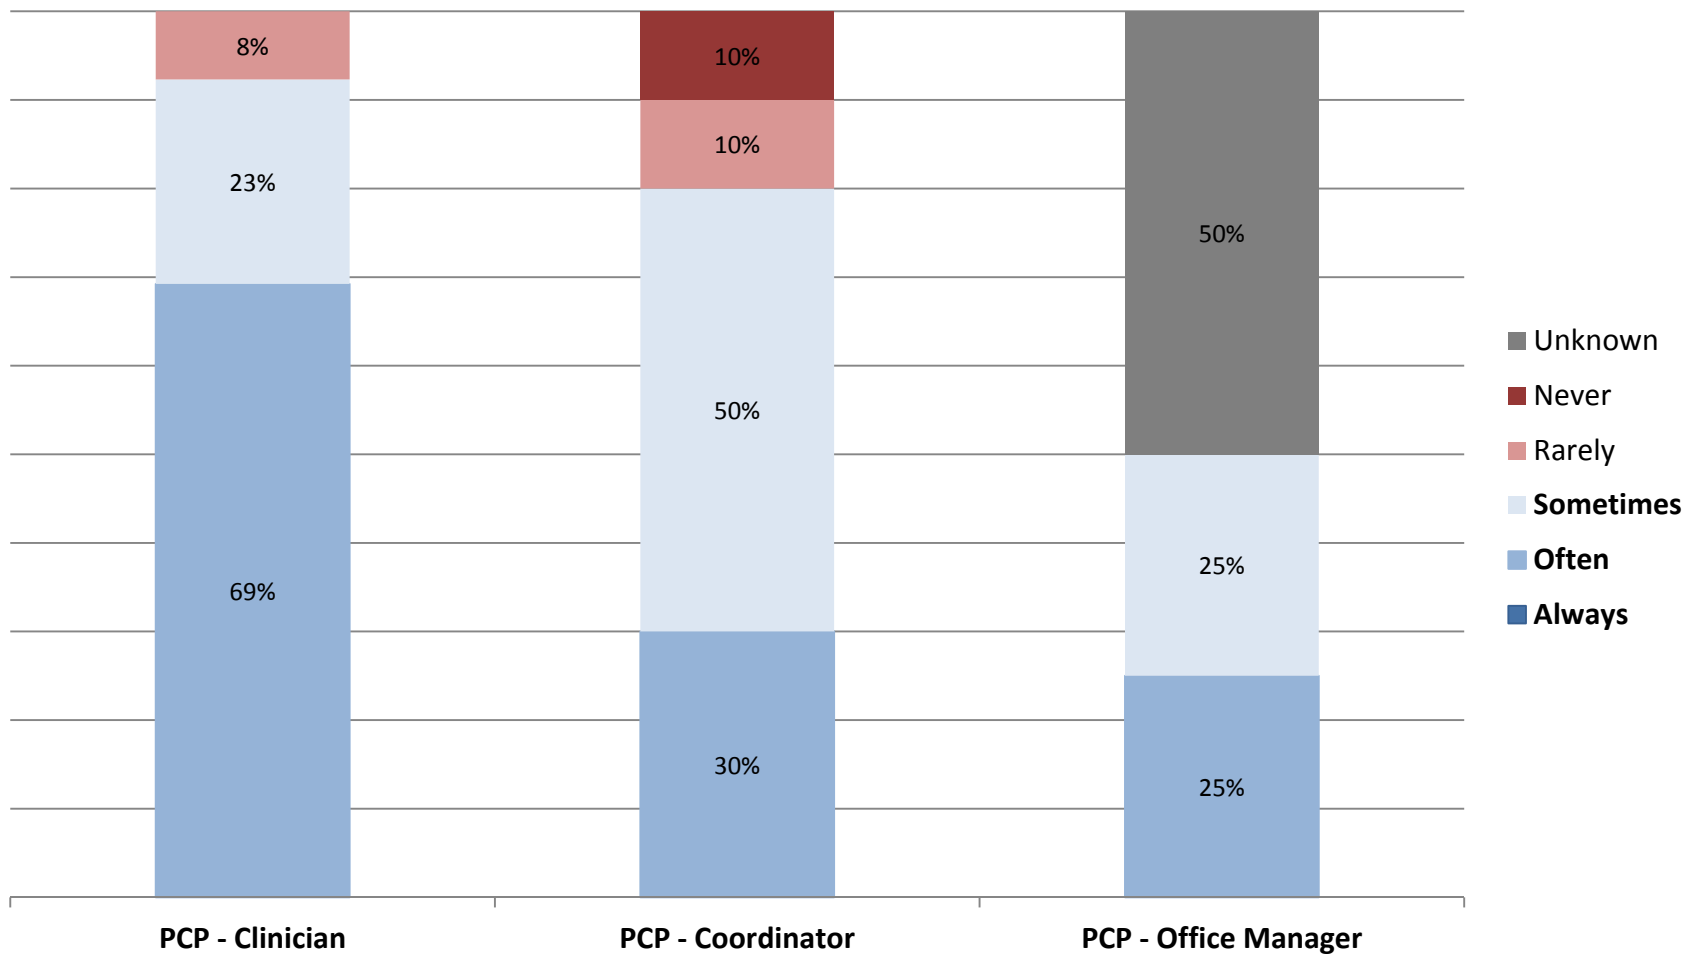

SCP: I typically have all the information I need before I see a patient referred to me.

SCP: The referral information received is specific and clear enough for me to understand what the PCP is requesting.

PCP: How often are you clear about the treatment plan when a consult is completed?

PCP: My patients are seen by specialists within a time period that meets my needs and those of my patient.

SPC: When a referral has a designation of “urgent”, “emergent” or “routine” is this designation appropriate?

PCP: Do you follow up with patients that “no show” to specialists appointments?

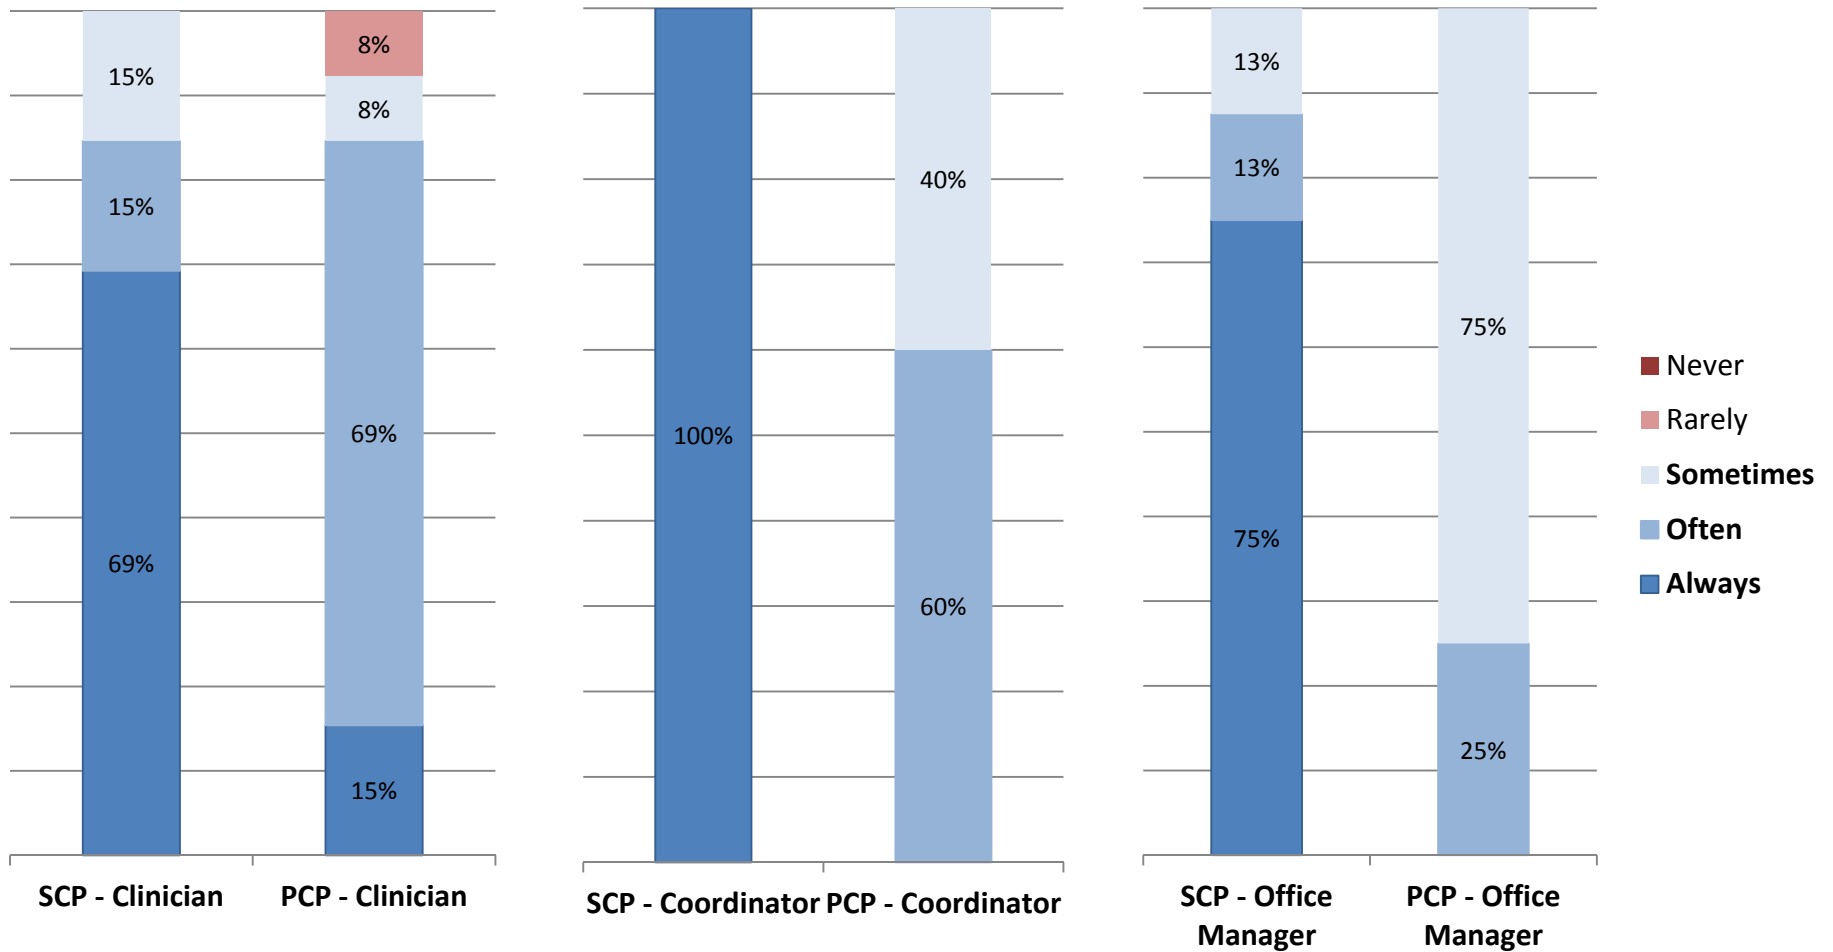

SCP: Do you notify PCPs when their patients “no show” to appointments?

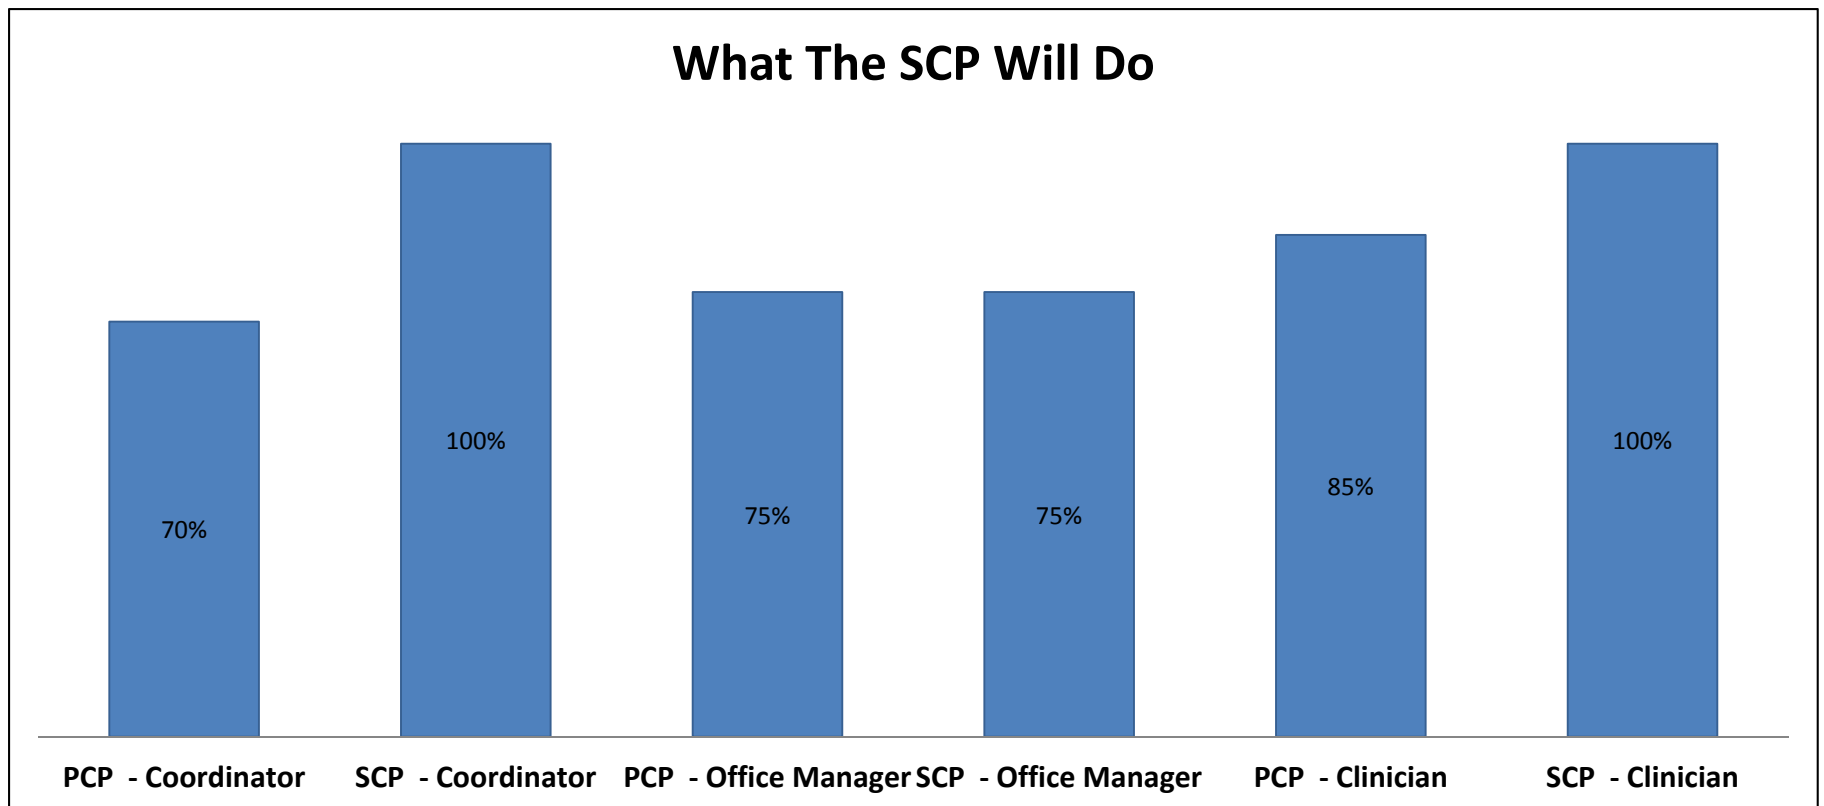

PCP: SCP sends you a visit summary.

SCP: You send PCP a visit summary.

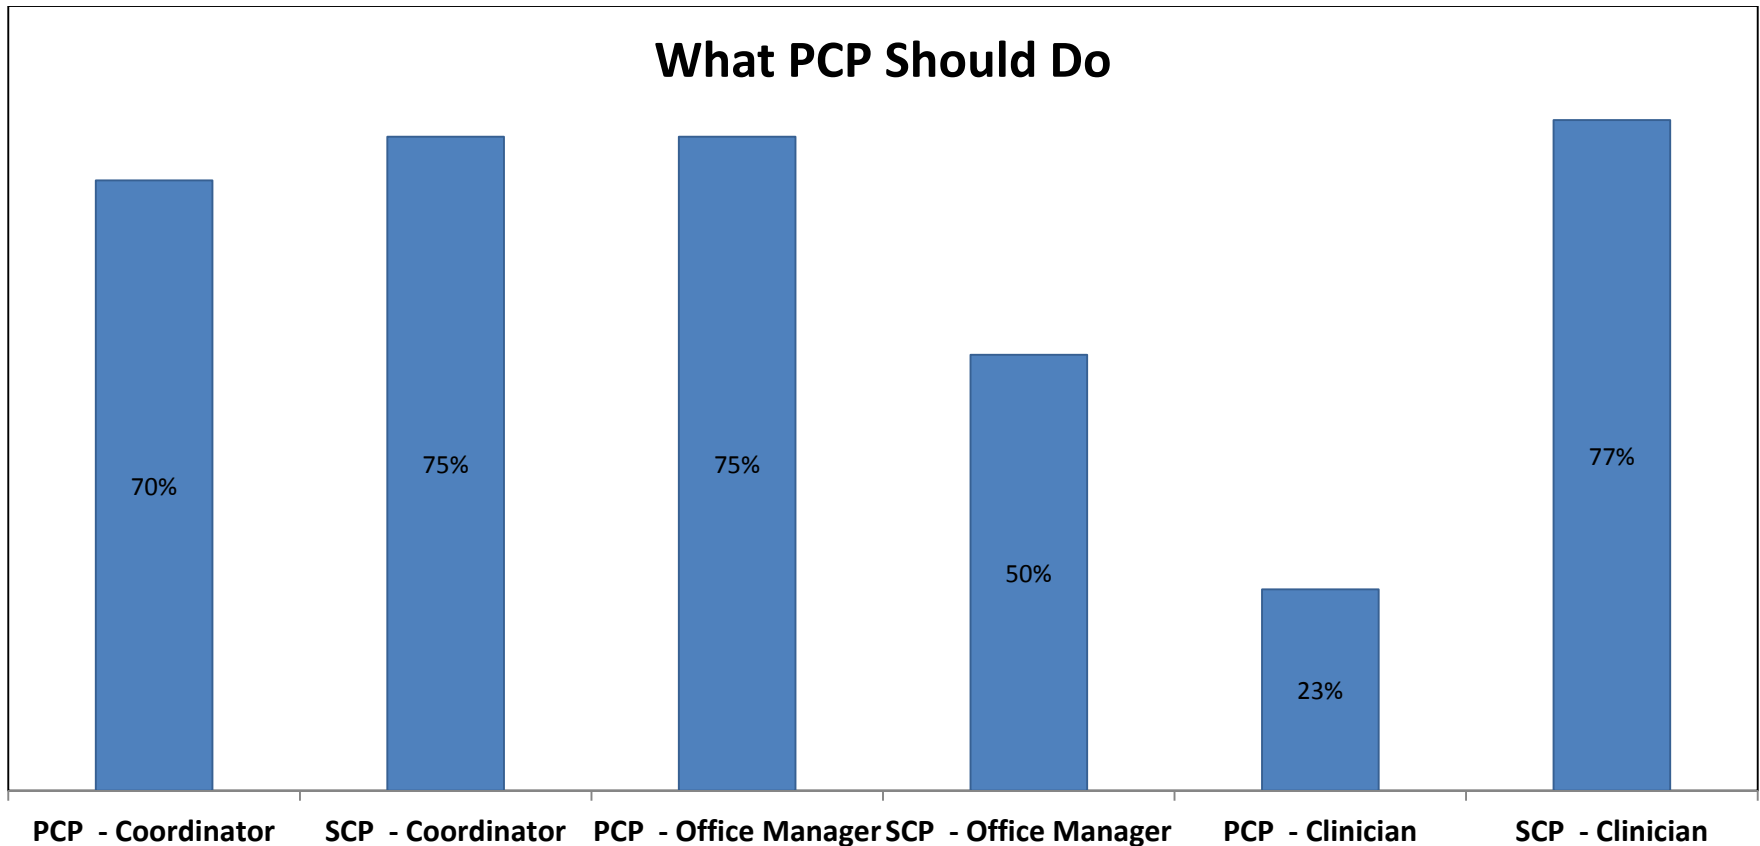

PCP: Which of the following do you receive from a SCP after a consultation?

SCP: Which of the following do you include in your communication to PCPs?

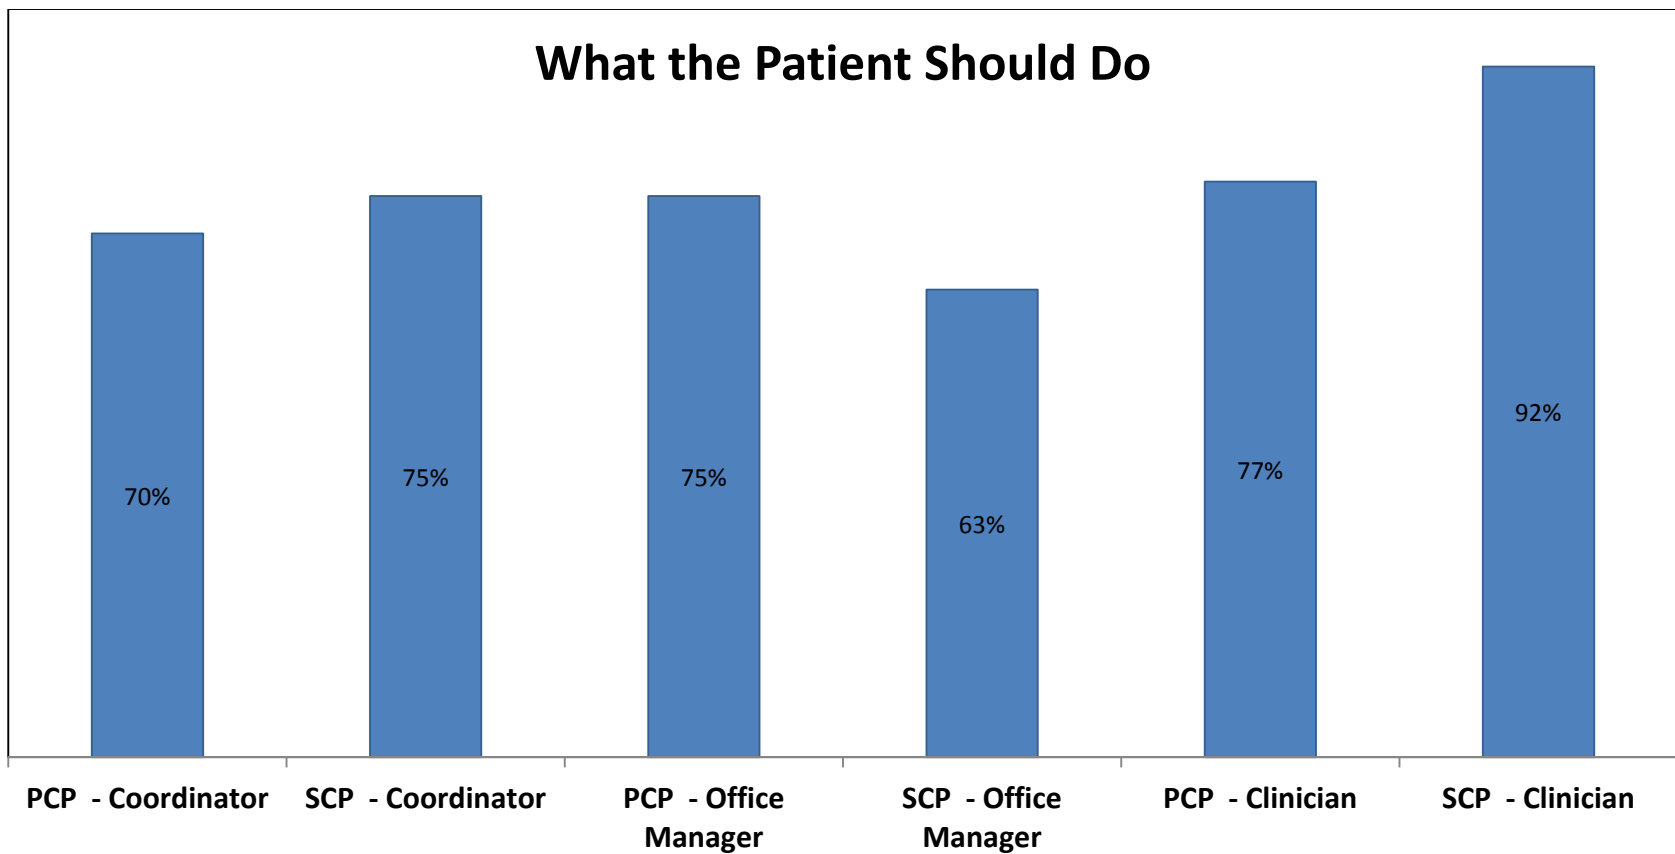

PCP: Which of the following do you receive from a SCP after a consultation?

SCP: Which of the following do you include in your communication to PCPs?

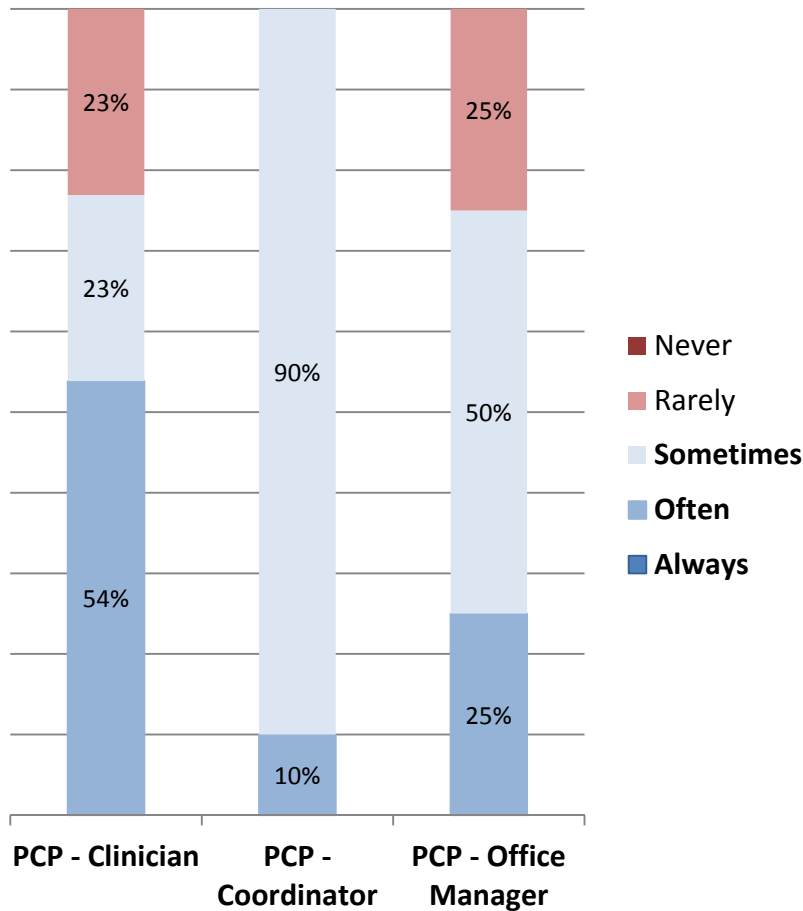

PCP: Which of the following do you receive from a SCP after a consultation?

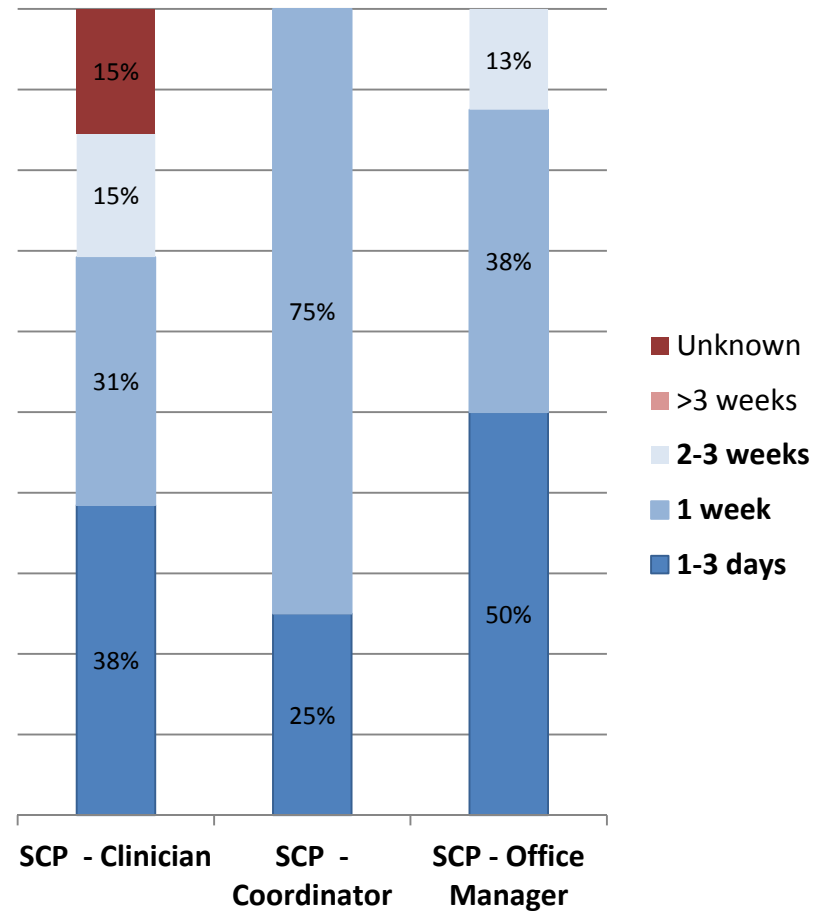

SCP: Which of the following do you include in your communication to PCPs?

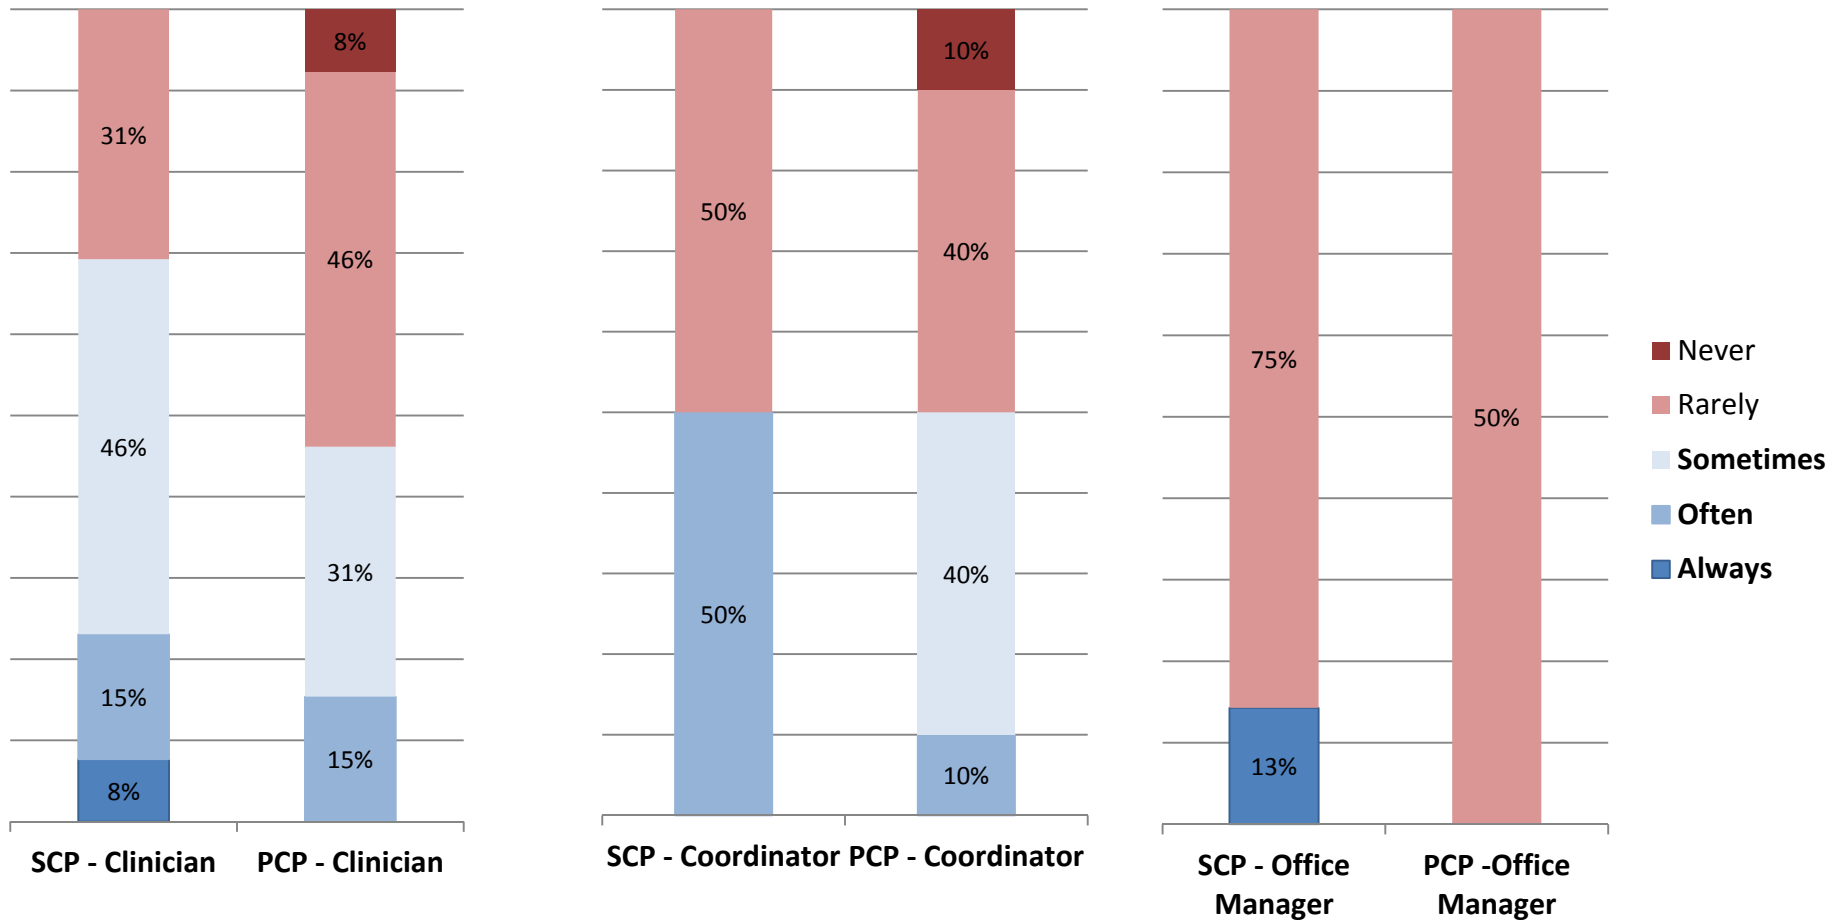

PCP: How often does the visit summary arrive in time to be useful at your next appointment with the patient?

SCP: What is the time frame from when you see a patient to when the primary care provider's office receives your consult note?

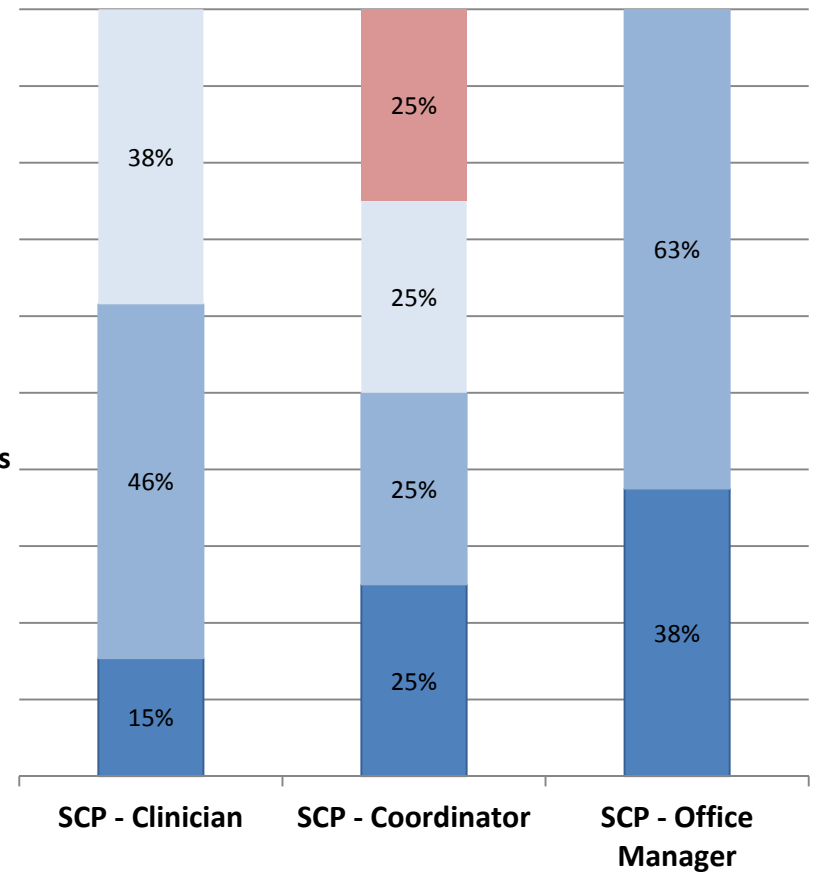

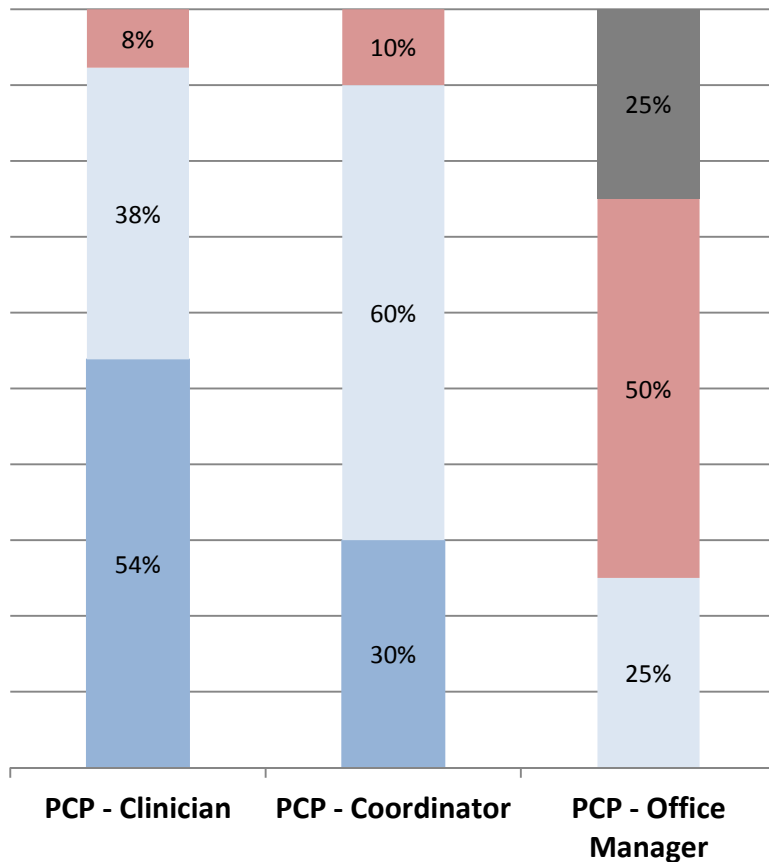

How often do specialists consult with PCPs before making non urgent referrals to secondary/ tertiary specialists?

PCP: How often do patients return with an understanding of the recommendations provided to them by the specialists?

SCP: When you see a patient are they aware of/understand the reason they were referred to you?

How satisfied are you with sending/receiving referral information

